

City Hall, Lodi, Cal., April 4, 1918.

In adjourned session of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi there were present Trustees Hale, Slack, Keeney, Beaver and Folendorf.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Proposals were received for furnishing one 125 H.P. motor or one 150 H.P. motor from General Electric Company, Fairbanks Morse Company and Superior Manufacturing Company. Upon motion the matter of acceptance or rejection of proposals received was laid over until the next regular meeting.

Mrs. Mary S. Lupton, William Lupton, Lona M. Spencer, Clara M. Acker, Mrs. J. Parvin, and Eliza J. Dougherty protested against the City allowing the California Fruit Exchange to use a portion of Lockeford street for a loading platform at their fruit shed. Upon motion the protest was laid on the table.

R.F. Gehan applied for permission to move, repair and install a new front in a building on lot 6, block 15, on West Locust street. There being objection from the adjoining property owners on account of increased fire hazard the matter was upon motion laid over until the next regular meeting, with instructions to the Marshal to not permit any further work on the building until a permit is granted.

City Recorder Ellis requested the Board to enact an ordinance similar to one recently passed in Berkeley making it a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment to utter disloyal or seditious statements within the city.

Upon motion of Trustee Keeney, seconded by Trustee Folendorf, the City Attorney was authorized to make demand upon the Board of Supervisors for the return to the City of money collected in fines for violation of the State Traffic Laws.

Miscellaneous claims against the City amounting to $680.07 were allowed and ordered paid.

The Board adjourned.

Attest:

H.S. Clark

City Clerk.
